"Silence is the answer to everything, and to. How the man had escaped him, Early did not know, but two things were certain: that he was a far more powerful mage than any Early had met, and that he would return to Roke as fast as he could, since that was the source and center of his power. There was no use trying to get there before him; he had the lead. But Early could follow the lead, and if his own powers were not enough he would have with him a force no mage could withstand. Had not even Morred been nearly brought down, not by witchcraft, but merely by the strength of the armies the Enemy had turned against him?. Next morning he picked a sprig of herb from the kitchen-garden of the inn and spelled it into the go at once, on what business he could not say, of course, but it should not take long once he was.
